Majority senators explain decision to withhold quorum, cite need to protect ongoing investigations

The Senate Majority today explained its decision not to provide a quorum for plenary sessions, saying the move is intended to protect the integrity of ongoing Senate investigations amid recent developments that have significantly altered the chamber's numerical balance.

They emphasized that the issue is not the Senate presidency but whether ongoing investigations, particularly those involving allegations of corruption and misuse of public funds, will be allowed to continue without interruption or political interference.

The recent arrest of Senator Jinggoy Estrada and the continuing absence of Senator Ronald "Bato" dela Rosa have created an unusual situation in which the balance of votes inside the Senate has shifted. While these developments do not provide sufficient numbers to change the Senate leadership, they may allow changes in committee leadership through the votes of senators present during session.

The Majority expressed concern that efforts are now being directed toward gaining control of key committees after earlier attempts to change the Senate leadership failed.

Of particular concern is the continuing investigation into flood control projects, one of the most significant inquiries currently being conducted by the Senate. The investigation involves billions of pesos in public expenditures and seeks to determine whether government funds were spent properly and whether public officials and private individuals should be held accountable.

The Majority maintained that the Filipino people deserve a complete accounting of how public funds were used and that any effort to alter the leadership of committees conducting these investigations inevitably raises questions about motive and timing.

The senators also pointed to what they described as an inconsistency in the public reaction to parliamentary tactics employed by different groups within the Senate. They noted that previous walkout by members of the Minority were widely defended as legitimate expressions of principle, while the Majority's decision to withhold quorum is now being portrayed as an abandonment of duty.

The Majority explained that the move was a lawful parliamentary tool meant to prevent temporary shifts from altering ongoing investigations.

The bloc reiterated that its position is rooted not in the protection of personalities or political advantage, but in the protection of the investigative work entrusted to the Senate on behalf of the Filipino people.

Politics aside, believe it or not, I think Kiko Barzaga is a fun and lovable guy. His beliefs are misplaced and his ways are chaotic, but when you see him in person, he has an aura that makes him hard to hate. Kaya sabi ko talaga na ibang-iba siya in person at online.

Best of luck, Kiko! Magpakabait ka na, sir. Huwag ka na sumanib sa masasamang pwersa kasi hindi ka na politiko at huwag ka na magpakalat ng fake news!

THIS SUNDAY, KNEEL BEFORE THE REAL BODY AND BLOOD OF JESUS CHRIST ✨🙏

This Sunday, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Corpus Christi—a sacred celebration honoring the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. More than a symbol or a remembrance, the Eucharist is truly the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Christ. Every Mass becomes a divine encounter where heaven touches earth and Jesus offers Himself completely for us once again.

In a world that constantly seeks temporary satisfaction, Corpus Christi reminds us that only Jesus can truly nourish the hunger of the human heart. In the Blessed Sacrament, Christ remains with us—not distant, not absent, but truly present. He waits for us in every tabernacle, every Mass, and every Eucharistic adoration chapel, inviting us to come close to Him with faith and humility.

This Sunday, kneel before the Eucharist with reverence and gratitude. Bring to Jesus your joys, burdens, fears, wounds, and silent prayers. The same Jesus who healed the sick, forgave sinners, calmed storms, and conquered death is the same Jesus present on the altar at every Holy Mass.

Corpus Christi is also a reminder that receiving the Eucharist should transform the way we live. If we receive the Body of Christ, we are called to become more like Christ—merciful, loving, forgiving, humble, and compassionate toward others.

May this solemnity renew our love for the Holy Eucharist. May we never take the Mass for granted, and may our hearts always long for Jesus truly present in the Blessed Sacrament.

O Sacrament Most Holy, O Sacrament Divine, all praise and all thanksgiving be every moment Thine. Amen. 🙏

GARIN DEFENDS EXPULSION OF REP. KIKO BARZAGA

House Deputy Speaker Janette Garin defended the expulsion of Cavite Rep. Kiko Barzaga from the House of Representatives, saying the neophyte lawmaker repeatedly failed to take his duties seriously despite multiple suspensions.

Garin made the remarks as questions continue to surround the decision to remove Barzaga from the chamber.

The House leader maintained that disciplinary actions had already been imposed before the eventual expulsion.

Actor Rob Sy breaks his silence anew to defend his son against malicious comments on social media, maintaining that the child is innocent and was bullied by someone older than him.

The celebrity father's statement comes after the Office of the City Prosecutor of Manila junked the case filed by celebrity couple Alfred and Yasmine Vargas against them.

"Mariin din naming itinatanggi ang alegasyon na kumakalat o pinanapakalat ng umano'y 'paulit-ulit na bullying.' Nais po naming linawin na ang aming anak ay HINDI bully. Ang ganitong paratang ay nananatiling walang sapat na ebidensyang sumusuporta rito," he expressed.

TULFO SLAMS CAYETANO OVER ABSENCE FROM SENATE SESSION

Sen. Erwin Tulfo criticized Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano for livestreaming on social media instead of attending the Senate plenary session.

Tulfo questioned Cayetano's priorities, saying he appears to spend more time on Facebook and live broadcasts than performing his duties as Senate president.

“May oras siya sa pagba-vlog pero 'yung gawain niya rito, 'yung trabaho niya bilang Senate president, hindi niya magampanan,” Tulfo said, adding that public officials are expected to fulfill the responsibilities entrusted to them by the people. #IMTNEWS

Son of late Romeo Acop hits Barzaga for mocking father's death

WATCH: Antipolo 2nd District Representative Philip Acop, son of the late Romeo Acop, chastises Kiko Barzaga, who once mocked the Acop patriarch's death.

Congressman Acop, who spoke on the House plenary floor on Tuesday, June 2, after the ethics committee unveiled its recommendation to expel Barzaga, says the chamber should not tolerate Barzaga's actions.

"Your legacy of ineptitude, your responsibility, and disrespect will indeed serve as a lesson to the entire Filipino people and your colleagues in the House of Representatives that we deserve competent leaders," the younger Acop adds.

“BEING DIFFERENT IS OKAY”

READ: Vice President Sara Duterte’s open letter to Rep. Kiko Barzaga today, June 3, 2026.

This comes after the House of Representatives expelled Barzaga over disorderly behavior and conduct unbecoming of a House member, including repeated failure to perform his duty as a lawmaker.

“It takes grit to be yourself in a world that rewards conformity. Not everyone will understand your choices or the path you take, and that's okay. What matters is staying true to who you are and what you believe in,” part of the message said. | via Ian Cruz/GMA News

OPEN LETTER TO FRANCISCO "KIKO" BARZAGA

Dear KB,

I do not have your number so an FB post is the next best thing.

Being different is okay.

It takes grit to be yourself in a world that rewards conformity. Not everyone will understand your choices or the path you take, and that's okay. What matters is staying true to who you are and what you believe in.

Ako man ay itinuturing na kakaiba. Ilang beses na akong tinawag na baliw, bobo, at kung anu-ano pa dahil lamang sa pagtangging sumunod sa nakasanayan.

You are different because you have never been convicted of child abuse, never brought home “maletas” of public funds, never allowed cocaine and alcohol to flow from your office, and never said yes to corruption and oppression.

Walking alone is okay, too.

It takes courage to charge forward even if no one will follow you. Your resolve is a daily reminder that character matters more than conformity. The strength you show inspires more Filipinos than you may ever know.

Alam kong may sipon ka ngayon. Uminom ka ng Vitamin C at damihan ang tubig na iniinom. Magpagaling ka.

Mahal ka ng Diyos, mga Caviteño, mga Dabawenyo, mga agila at ng mga pusa.

With my utmost respect,

Inday Sara

OPEN LETTER TO FRANCISCO "KIKO" BARZAGA

Dear KB,

I do not have your number so an FB post is the next best thing.

Being different is okay.

It takes grit to be yourself in a world that rewards conformity. Not everyone will understand your choices or the path you take, and that's okay. What matters is staying true to who you are and what you believe in.

Ako man ay itinuturing na kakaiba. Ilang beses na akong tinawag na baliw, bobo, at kung anu-ano pa dahil lamang sa pagtangging sumunod sa nakasanayan.

You are different because you have never been convicted of child abuse, never brought home "maletas" of public funds, never allowed cocaine and alcohol to flow from your office, and never said yes to corruption and oppression.

Walking alone is okay, too.

It takes courage to charge forward even if no one will follow you. Your resolve is a daily reminder that character matters more than conformity. The strength you show inspires more Filipinos than you may ever know.

Alam kong may sipon ka ngayon. Uminom ka ng Vitamin C at damihan ang tubig na iniinom. Magpagaling ka.

Mahal ka ng Diyos, mga Caviteño, mga Dabawenyo, mga agila at ng mga pusa.

With my utmost respect,

Inday Sara

Napanood mo na ba 'yung bagong pelikula ng Star Cinema na Tayo sa Wakas ng DonBelle?

Ang ganda no? Mapapaisip ka talaga tungkol sa buhay, pag-ibig, at mga "biglaang" pagbabago na hindi natin inaasahan.

Grabe ang buhay no? Hindi natin alam kung kailan darating ang "biglaan." Biglaang pagbabago ng direksyon ng buhay, ng pagmamahalan, at minsan, pati ng bokasyon. Gaya ng naging kuwento nina Cisco at Cheska—dalawang taong nagmahal nang totoo pero dumating sa puntong kailangan nilang harapin ang katotohanang hindi sapat minsan ang pagmamahal lang kung magkaiba na kayo ng tinatahak na landas.

Two hearts, one journey through the ups and downs of love. Mas lalong naging makatotohanan ang mundo ng "Tayo sa Wakas" dahil sa lalim ng karakter nina Cisco at Cheska, na ginampanan nina Donny Pangilinan at Belle Mariano. Sa direksyon ni Cathy Garcia-Sampana at panulat ni Vanessa R. Valdez, ipinakita ng pelikula kung paano nasusubok ang isang matagal na relasyon habang pareho silang lumalago sa magkaibang direksyon.

At habang pinapanood ko ito, napaisip din ako: minsan pala, hindi lang relasyon ang sinusubok ng panahon—pati calling at bokasyon natin sa buhay. May mga pagkakataong akala natin sigurado na ang lahat, pero may mas malaking plano palang inihahanda ang Diyos para sa atin.

Sana, kung maging pari man ako, kami pa rin ni Kristo hanggang sa Wakas. 🙏

My father was not charged with "rebellion." He was charged with "rebellion complexed with murder"—a legal theory so fundamentally flawed that the Supreme Court ultimately rejected it as a non-existent crime under Philippine law.

RESOLUTION

PAHIMNA, J:

For resolution of this court is the Motion for Reconsideration [Re: Precautionary Hold Departure Order dated 22 April 2026] with Motion to Lift Precautionary Hold Departure Order[2] (Motion) filed by defendant Representative Ferdinand Martin Gomez Romualdez (Rep. Romualdez). Also submitted for the court's consideration is the Opposition[3] dated May 18, 2026 filed by plaintiff, the People of the Philippines, through the Office of the Special Prosecutor of the Office of the Ombudsman.

[1] Records, pp. 125-146.
[2] Id. at 169-177.

It is not superfluous to restate that the essence of PHDO is to address flight risk during preliminary investigation before issuance of a warrant of arrest or a hold departure order. It ensures orderly administration of justice bound by due process without rendering the investigation and the rules inutile. With the rule on PHDO, the court addressed the situation that an individual who is suspected of committing a crime may have his or her right to travel restricted for the purpose of ensuring that individual's attendance at the proceedings and prevent him or her from absconding in the event that a criminal Information is filed with the courts.[10]

ACCORDINGLY, instant Motion is DENIED for lack of merit.

SO ORDERED.

Paano nga ba kumikita ang mga credit corporations, kagaya ng Home Credit, kung ZERO INTEREST yung paninda? 🤔

Ang main source nila ng profit ay COMMISSIONS from the merchants (through partnerships, of course). Payag ang mga merchants dito, kahit na mas liliit ang profit nila dahil papartehan pa nila ang mga credit corporations, pero in return, offering installment options increases sales volume since customers are more likely to buy high-ticket items when they can pay monthly.

Aside from that, andyan din ang mga additional fees kapag late kang nakabayad, termination fee kapag may late kang nabayaran, at katakot-takot na mga processing fees.

Ayun, kaya maraming stores ang nag-ooffer ng installment sa mga gadgets nila through home credit.

Reyna ng Vicks?

Hindi naman...

Nauso din lang ang kumustahan
Ako'y inyong pagpasensyahan,
Wala namang karapatang umeksena
Lalo na sa katatapos na Senadong drama!

Hindi nyo man naitatanong,
Kahit marami na ngang naipakulong,
Nang tawagin sa Senado upang tumulong
Sa investigation nuon,
Naiyak rin akong tunay,
Kahit isang matapang na Nanay!

Nauunawaan ko ang takot ni Sen Pia,
Kaya agad tinawagan ang anak nya.
Hindi ko nga lang malaman kung saan ba,
Nagmumula ang takot nya?

Nakita kong lumuha si Sen Camille,
May pahabol pang dasal
Ang akin lang sanang gustong itanong
Ipinagdasal nyo rin ba
Ang sa katoto nyo'y nag-imbestiga!

Mag-hanapan tayo ng luha,
Masasabi kong sagana!
Ilang gabing may uwing takda,
Kailangang tapusin para sa madla!

Kung makatapak ka ng malakas
Aba ang sabi nila wag kang ungas!
Aayusin nila at lahat
Kaiingat ka sa iyong isisiwalat!

Hindi lamang, buwis ganda
Ang bawat pag-iimbestiga (pramis)
Kung sadyang mamalasin ka
Buwis buhay at lahat na!

Jun 03, 2026 14:05:08

Kung makatapak ka ng malakas

Aayusin nila at lahat
Kaiingat ka sa iyong isisiwalat!

Hindi lamang, buwis ganda
Ang bawat pag-iimbestiga (pramis)
Kung sadyang mamalasin ka
Buwis buhay at lahat na!

Bago nyo purihin at damayan ang inyong katoto,
Linawin nyo naman sana kung sino
Ang matapang na tumatayo sa totoo
Kahit walang pangalan at sadyang ordinaryo!

Nagbabagang luha,
nagmula
sa balon ng tapat na panata.

Wala kayo nyan kahit pa ngumalngal
Sapagkat pakitang tao lamang at mali ang asal!

Alay ko ito sa lahat ng auditor at imbestigador na Nanay
Na kahit na nanganganib ang buhay,
Sinusulit nang may saysay
Lumuha man ng sabay-sabay
Sa pag-hibik at pananamlay
Nang bayan nyang pinaglilingkuran
At kailan man ay hindi susukuan!

Salamat Nutribun Republic para sa picture.

'PAGOD NA SIYA'

Content creator Gavin Capinpin, popularly known as Ser Geybin, will be taking a hiatus from making vlogs to focus on his physical and mental health recovery.

In a video uploaded on Tuesday, June 2, Ser Geybin's loved ones asked for prayers after he was rushed to a hospital due to difficulty in breathing and stiffness.

They did not disclose further details about the content creator's medical condition but shared that the latter has been dealing with immense stress, pressure, and sadness.

"Bago mangyari lahat ng 'yon, nag-usap kami. Nagulat ako na nakikita natin siyang masaya araw-araw sa vlog pero lahat naman ng tao may pinagdadaanan. Kahapon ko lang din nalaman ang lahat ng nasaisip niya," Ser Geybin's longtime partner, Elma Asagra, tearfully said.

"Sobrang lungkot niya kasi wala (passed away) si Tito Peddy (Ser Geybin's father). Isa 'yun sa dinadala niya hanggang ngayon.

"Napapagod na siya araw-araw. Hindi niya alam kung ano pa ang ikakaexcite niya bukas. Paulit-ulit na lang daw ang ganun pero hindi siya pwedeng huminto kasi paano daw pagnagkasakit kayo (siblings)? Paano si Tita (his mother)? Paano ang mga tao na nakapaligid sa kanya?

"Hindi siya pwedeng sumuko pero pagod na pagod na siya. Hindi na niya alam kung paano i-motivate ang sarili niya. Kahit simpleng bagay naiisip niya na palakihin."

Ser Geybin, a former teacher and known for his funny pranks, challenges, and adventures, took on the hat as family breadwinner after his father died in 2021. He is the eldest among three siblings. #IMTNEWS

Cagayan Economic Zone Authority Administrator and Chief Executive Officer Katrina Ponce Enrile issued a public appeal on Facebook requesting factual accuracy regarding the past court cases of her father, former Senate President Juan Ponce Enrile.

The government official stated that her message serves as a daughter's demand for historical truth rather than a political commentary within a polarized environment.

Ponce Enrile criticized Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano for repeatedly citing her father's judiciary record as a public example during active Senate debates.

“Senator Cayetano seems to have a penchant for using my father’s case as an example,” Ponce Enrile wrote, adding that public figures who can no longer defend themselves should not be reduced to abbreviated versions of history.

The administrator disputed specific public claims that the former Senate leader faced basic rebellion charges during his political career.

Ponce Enrile clarified that state prosecutors formally charged her father with rebellion complexed with murder.

“My father was not charged with ‘rebellion,’" Ponce Enrile stated, explaining that the specific filing involved "a legal theory so fundamentally flawed that the Supreme Court ultimately rejected it as a non-existent crime under Philippine law.”

The official emphasized that precise phrasing and statutory distinctions remain vital when referencing public records that are accessible to the public for verification.

Ponce Enrile noted that while public figures invite strong opinions, individuals who use her father as a historical example must treat the established facts with care and respect.

BREAKING NEWS | MOSYON NI ROMUALDEZ VS. PHDO

Ibinasura ng Sandiganbayan 7th division ang mosyon ni Rep. Martin Romualdez na tanggalin ang inilabas na precautionary hold departure order (PHDO) laban sa kanya. | via Camille Samonte with his physician in Singapore. He likewise failed to show that, prior to the emergence of the flood control controversy, he had previously undertaken similar trips for the same medical purpose.

b. Even assuming that Rep. Romualdez is indeed suffering from a medical condition, he presented no evidence showing that his illness is urgent or that it constitutes an immediate medical emergency requiring treatment abroad.

c. Rep. Romualdez also failed to demonstrate that qualified medical professionals in the Philippines are incapable of treating his condition. Neither did he establish that the treatment or procedure he seeks overseas is unavailable locally or is a substantially better option than those accessible within the country.

d. Rep. Romualdez's failure to provide a detailed and confirmed travel itinerary further casts doubt on the legitimacy and necessity of the proposed trip. He likewise did not designate any authorized representative or contact person who could be reached or act on his behalf during his absence.

e. Finally, the risk of flight cannot be disregarded. Rep. Romualdez has been identified as the alleged mastermind behind the flood control scam. Given the gravity of the allegations and the severe penalties that may result, including imprisonment, fines, and forfeiture of assets, Rep. Romualdez clearly possesses sufficient motive and opportunity to evade the jurisdiction of the authorities should he be allowed to leave the country.

All these considered, there appears to be no sufficient justification to lift the PHDO.

SEÑOR SANTO NIÑO, I SURRENDER MY JUNE TO YOU. 👑❤️

Señor Santo Niño, as we begin the month of June, we place everything into Your loving hands. We surrender to You our plans, dreams, worries, fears, and even the silent battles we carry within our hearts. Teach us to trust with the simplicity, humility, and faith of a child.

In a world filled with uncertainty, remind us that true peace is found not in worldly things, but in staying close to You. May Your holy presence guide our steps, strengthen us in moments of weakness, and help us remain faithful even when life becomes difficult. Bless our families, our work, our studies, and every path we are about to take this month.

Señor Santo Niño, protect us from harm, lead us away from sin, and help us grow in kindness, patience, and love. May this June become a month filled with grace, healing, answered prayers, and deeper devotion to You. Teach our hearts to become more childlike—full of trust in God and sincere love for others.

As June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, may our devotion to the Santo Niño lead us closer to the loving Heart of Christ. May every blessing and challenge this month draw us nearer to God's will.

Señor Santo Niño, walk with us this June. Stay in our hearts, our homes, and our lives always. Amen. 🙏👑

'THE PEOPLE ELECTED YOU TO GOVERN, NOT TO PROTECT A SENATE PRESIDENCY'

Former Cabinet official Edwin Lacierda reminded senators in the majority bloc on Wednesday to think about the public's perception of them over their continued absence in the plenary session, which according to them was a "protest on the independence of the Senate."

"This is no longer about principle. It is increasingly about preserving Alan Cayetano's leadership. And if you continue holding the Senate hostage for that purpose, the public's frustration will not stop with him. It will extend to every senator who enabled it," Lacierda wrote.

On Wednesday, the Senate is scheduled to hold its final plenary session before its sine die adjournment.

If you think the public is applauding the continued paralysis of the Senate, think again. [...] The people elected you to govern, not to protect a Senate presidency. Power is temporary. Public judgment lasts much longer.

If you think the public is applauding the continued paralysis of the Senate, think again. [...] The people elected you to govern, not to protect a Senate presidency. Power is temporary. Public judgment lasts much longer.

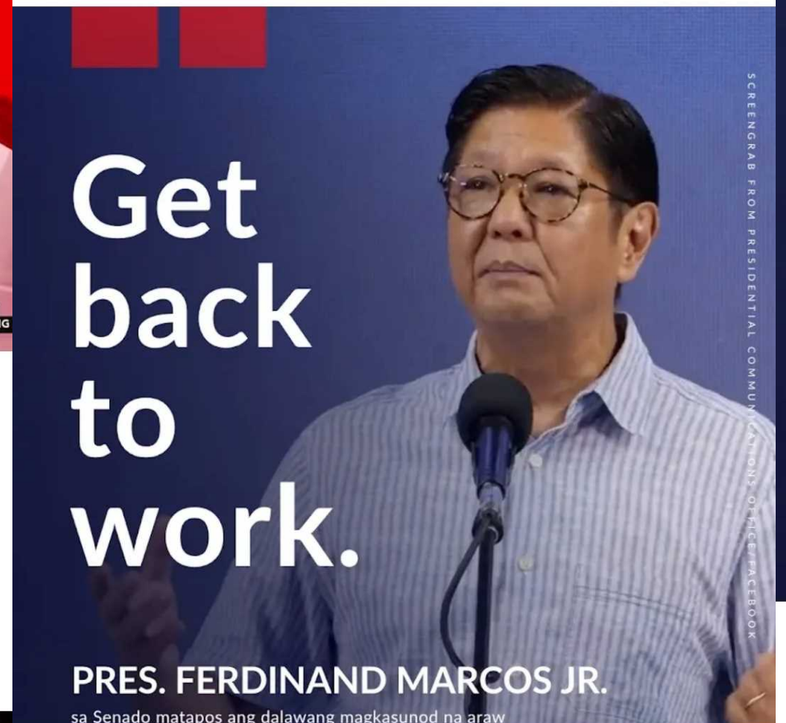
'GET BACK TO WORK'

Iyan ang mensahe ni Pangulong Bongbong Marcos sa Senado matapos kanselahin ni Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano ang sesyon ng institusyon nitong June 1 at 2, 2026.

Noong Lunes, hindi dumalo ang mga miyembro ng mayorya sa nakatakdang sesyon ng Senado dahil sinamahan nila si Sen. Jinggoy Estrada na inaresto kaugnay ng kasong plunder at graft.

Kahapon, hindi muli sumipot ang mayorya sa sesyon bilang pagprotesta sa "puppet Senate" na gusto umanong mangyari ng kasalukuyang minorya na naunang mag-walkout noong May 26 bilang protesta sa mungkahi ng mayorya na payagan ang "remote voting" sa pagtalakay ng impeachment trial ni Vice President Sara Duterte.



Get back to work.

Just remember, forcing me to request is a huge disaster. It caused me to take a long hiatus or leave without saying anything. Just remember a long time ago when an anonymous person forced me to upload his request for a few days, again and again.

After i upload some videos, they send me a hate message and his chatbots send me d*ath threats because of his request that i already uploaded. That is why i took a long hiatus because of this situation.

So remember youngins, please request positive. So i can read it.

Dear propagandista,
Hindi Kakampinks ang humaharang sa flood control report.
Ang pumirma sa BRC report? Minority.
Ang hindi umattend sa flood control hearings? Cayetano, ex officio member.
Ang ayaw pumirma para umakyat sana sa plenaryo? Mga kaalyado ninyong takot makita ng publiko ang laman.
Kung pumirma sila, nadebate sana. Nabasa sana. Nabunyag sana kung sinong may paper trail.

🇵🇭 Naisip mo na ba kung ano talaga ang nangyayari behind the scenes sa prop firm mo?
Most traders spend hours comparing challenge fees, profit splits, at account sizes. Pero kakaunti lang ang nagtatanong ng mas importanteng question: sino ba talaga ang may control sa infrastructure sa likod ng firm?

Maraming prop firms ang umaasa sa third-party platforms, technology providers, at execution services para patakbuhin ang kanilang operations.

Iba ang FXIFY.

Backed by FXPIG, a broker with over 15 years of experience sa FX industry, ang FXIFY ay gumagamit ng infrastructure na binuo ng mga industry professionals na talagang naiintindihan ang trading mula sa pinaka-foundation nito.

Mula execution at pricing hanggang trader support at payouts, nakatutok ang FXIFY sa pagbibigay ng transparent at professional trading experience.

Kung naghahanap ka ng prop firm na may tunay na industry experience sa likod nito, baka panahon na para mas kilalanin ang FXIFY.

FXIFY provides demo trading accounts funded with virtual capital for simulation purposes only. Based on their performance in these simulated environments, traders may qualify for monetary rewards.

ICE CREAM, INDUSTRY, AND IDENTITY

Some communities are known for their landmarks. Others are known for their stories. Barangay Anilao in Pavia has become known for something much sweeter: ice cream.

Last May 29, I had the pleasure of joining the celebration of Ice Cream Day 2026 at the new Barangay Hall of Anilao, Pavia. As someone who also comes from a place called Anilao, I could not help but appreciate how this community has built a unique identity around an industry that has provided livelihoods, opportunities, and pride to generations of families.

Nami guid makita nga ang isa ka industriya nga nagsugod sa simple nga pagpangabuhi nagdaku kag nangin kabahin sang identidad sang isa ka komunidad. Sa tagsa ka sorbetes nga ginahimo kag ginabaligya, may yara sang istorya sang pagpangabudlay, pagbinuligay, kag paglaom.

I was honored to share the occasion with BM June Mondejar, BM JP Peñol, Vice Mayor Edsel Gerochi, Hon. Joshua Gumban, Hon. Daniel Fajardo, our barangay officials, and the hardworking ice cream makers and residents of Brgy. Anilao led by Punong Barangay Tito J. Henarios.

Upod sa mga pumuluyo kag mga bisita, nagpila man kita agod masampulan ang nagakalain-lain nga flavors sang homemade ice cream sang Pavia. I probably sampled more than I planned to kay bisan wala ginapangayo, ginaduhol lang ang libre nga sorbetes! I also enjoyed watching the ice cream-eating contest, the lively performances, and the enthusiasm of everyone in attendance. Madamo guid nga salamat sa tanan nga nagpatigayon kag nakigbahin sa sini nga masadya nga selebrasyon.

I am also encouraged by the ongoing deliberations at the Sangguniang Panlalawigan on the proposed ordinance authored by BM JP Peñol declaring Barangay Anilao, Pavia as the Sorbete Capital of Iloilo. The proposal recognizes not only a beloved local product but also the hardworking families and entrepreneurs who helped build this industry

Because sometimes, the sweetest stories are the ones built by an entire community together. 🍦

Ipinaliwanag ni acting Senate President Sherwin Gatchalian kung bakit nagbukas ng sesyon ang Senado at nagtalaga ng mga bagong opisyal kahit wala ang mayorya.

Tingnan ang comments section para sa kaugnay na ulat.

We are compelled to call the session to order today (June 3, 2026). After the Senate adjourned on May 26, 2026 session was scheduled to resume on Monday, June 1, 2026 and on Tuesday, June 2, 2026. But the former Senate president failed to appear in both instances. Further, Article 6, Section 16(5) of the constitution provides that neither house shall, during sessions of Congress, adjourn for more than three days without the consent of the other house. The Senate has been adjourned and unable to resume session for the past two days, placing us on a brink of constitutional violation had we not convened today. Thus, in the absence of the duly consulted postponement and the continued absence of the former Senate president, former Senate president pro tempore, and members of the majority, we are compelled to call the session in order.

'I'D BE MORE THAN CONTENT TO GO'

Just nearly a month into his term as Senate President, Alan Peter Cayetano addressed calls for his resignation during a Facebook Live on Wednesday, June 3.

"In fact, tinitingnan ko lang day by day, week by week lang na matuloy lang itong mga hearing at maumpisahan lang. Baka naman 'yun lang ang trabaho ko. I'd be more than content to go," he said.

Cayetano replaced Sen. Tito Sotto on May 11 in a surprise leadership coup by senators aligned with detained former president Rodrigo Duterte.

On June 2, the Senate minority bloc issued a statement urging Cayetano to resign from his post, citing his inability to effectively lead the chamber amid the majority bloc's absence from plenary sessions.

MOTHER OF PERPETUAL HELP, PRAY FOR US! ❤️

Every first Wednesday of June, many Catholics renew their devotion to Our Mother of Perpetual Help—a title that reminds us that the Blessed Virgin Mary never stops helping her children. She is called “Perpetual Help” because her love, prayers, and guidance are constant. In every season of life, Mama Mary continues to lead us closer to Jesus.

Life can sometimes leave us tired, anxious, and wounded. There are moments when our prayers seem unanswered, when our hearts feel heavy, and when we struggle silently with fears and uncertainties. Yet in the midst of these struggles, Mary gently reminds us: “Do not be afraid. Bring everything to my Son.” Just as she cared for Jesus with tenderness and faith, she also cares for us as our spiritual mother.

The image of Our Mother of Perpetual Help beautifully reflects this truth. In the icon, the Child Jesus runs to Mary in fear, and Mary holds Him securely while pointing toward heaven. It is a reminder that whenever we feel weak or troubled, we too can run to her loving embrace. Mary never keeps us for herself; she always directs us to Christ, the true source of peace, mercy, and salvation.

Devotion to Mother of Perpetual Help is not only about praying novenas or lighting candles. It is also about learning to trust God more deeply. Through Mary’s intercession, we are encouraged to persevere in faith even when life becomes difficult. She teaches us to remain hopeful, prayerful, patient, and faithful despite the storms we face.

This June, may we entrust our worries, dreams, families, and future to Our Mother of Perpetual Help. May she guide those who feel lost, comfort those who are grieving, strengthen those who are struggling, and protect those who are afraid. And may her loving presence remind us that no prayer offered with faith is ever unheard.

Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for us and lead us always to Jesus. 🙏❤️

The arrival of Sen. Francis Escudero allowed the Senate to convene on Wednesday, despite the absence of the group led by Sen. Alan Peter Cayetano.

The 11-strong minority bloc was waiting for majority senators in the scheduled plenary session, when Escudero, the lone majority senator, showed up at the session hall.

This allowed a quorum to be declared with 12 senators present.

Sen. Vicente Sotto III then moved to declare vacancy in all positions in the Senate, which was approved.

Sen. Sherwin Gatchalian was then elected as Senate President Pro Tempore, while Sen Miguel Zubiri was named Majority Leader.

Ray Bantug was elected as Senate Secretary.

'COMMITTEE ON SILENCE AKO'

Habang naghihintay sa pagdating ng mga senador mula sa majority bloc nitong Martes, June 2, nakipagbiruan si Sen. Lito Lapid sa kanyang mga kasamahan sa minority bloc.

"Pag ako pumukpok, wala nang magsasalita. Kasi 'Committee on Silence' ako eh," hirit ni Lapid.

Sa kabila ng kanilang paghihintay, hindi muli dumalo sa plenaryo ang Senate majority bloc nitong Martes, June 2.

‘HUWAG N’YO PO KAMING ALALAHANIN, OK PO AKO’

Senate President Alan Cayetano assured the public that he is “OK” despite the chamber’s revamp that led to the election of Senator Win Gatchalian as the new Senate president pro tempore on Wednesday.

Gatchalian was also declared the acting Senate president, a move strongly questioned and described by Cayetano as an “illegal” coup.

“They can try to remove me. They can kill me, but they will not kill the idea of a democratic Philippines,” he said in a Facebook Live.

FROM BIKE CLINICS TO SMARTER MOBILITY ILOILO CITY

To further promote sustainable, healthy, and efficient mobility sa aton Siyudad, naka-istorya kita kay MMDA General Manager and Former PNP Chief, Nicolas Torre III for possible initiatives that support bike-friendly infrastructure and improved traffic management.

Among our key discussions are Bike Clinic programs, promoting bike to work, expanding bike racks in parking areas, and establishing End of Trip (EoT) facilities nga magahatag sang secure spaces for cyclists to freshen up kag magbutang sang ila belongings before and after work.

We also explored how these systems can encourage more commuters to shift to active transport, making biking and walking more convenient, safe, and practical para sa tanan. He also shared the MMDA 136 Hotline system as a best practice nga pwede naton ma-study kag ma-adapt for more responsive emergency kag traffic coordination in Iloilo City.

Padayon kita sa pag-develop sang smarter, safer, kag more sustainable transport solutions for a more livable Iloilo City.

Being different is okay.

It takes grit to be yourself in a world that rewards conformity. Not everyone will understand your choices or the path you take, and that's okay. What matters is staying true to who you are and what you believe in.

Ako man ay itinuturing na kakaiba. Ilang beses na akong tinawag na baliw, bobo, at kung anu-ano pa dahil lamang sa pagtangging sumunod sa nakasanayan.

You are different because you have never been convicted of child abuse, never brought home “maletas” of public funds, never allowed cocaine and alcohol to flow from your office, and never said yes to corruption and oppression.

Walking alone is okay, too.

It takes courage to charge forward even if no one will follow you. Your resolve is a daily reminder that character matters more than conformity. The strength you show inspires more Filipinos than you may ever know.

Ilang boto ba talaga ang kailangan para maghalal ng Senate President? Bakit hindi kaagad mapapalitan si Alan Peter Cayetano?

Sabi kasi sa Constitution:

Article VI, Section 16(1):
“The Senate shall elect its President and the House of Representatives its Speaker, by a majority vote of ALL its respective Members.”

Ibig sabihin, kapag Senate President ang pinag-uusapan, kailangan majority of all members — so at least 13 senators.

However, for other matters or “doing business” (like electing committee chairpersons or other officers), iba ang rule:

Article VI, Section 16(2):
“A majority of each House shall constitute a quorum to do business.”

Na-explain ito sa Avelino v. Cuenco (G.R. No. L-2821):
When the Constitution declares that a majority of "each House" shall constitute a quorum, "the House: does not mean "all" the members.

So in short:

Electing Senate President = majority of all members (13 votes)

Other Senate business = majority of those present, as long as may quorum

THE NEW SENATE MAJORITY

The new Senate majority has thanked Senator Chiz Escudero for joining the Senate session on Wednesday, June 3.

Escudero's presence paved the way for the upper chamber to declare a quorum.

"The Filipino people deserve a Senate that shows up, does its job, and places public service above politics," the majority said.

Replying to @dawende and @bobreyes

Not accurate. Sen Cayetano is no longer SP. With 12 senators present, a quorum was declared out of the base number of 22 since Sens de la Rosa and Estrada are outside the “coercive power” of the Senate (Avelino v Cuenco. GR No 2821). Hence, we voted to declare all positions vacant, although we could not yet elect a new SP because we lacked the 13 votes required under the Constitution.

READ: The 1949 Supreme Court resolution in Avelino v. Cuenco, which acting Senate President Sherwin Gatchalian cited to explain that 12 members constitute a "constitutional majority" for a quorum.

JOSE AVELINO, PETITIONER, VS. MARIANO J. CUENCO, RESPONDENT.

RESOLUTION

In G. R. No. L-2821, Avelino vs. Cuenco, the Court by a vote of six justices against four resolved to deny the petition.

Without prejudice to the promulgation of a more extended opinion, this is now written briefly to explain the principal grounds for the denial.

The Court believes the following essential facts have been established:

In the session of the Senate of February 18, 1949, Senator Lorenzo M. Tañada requested that his right to speak on the floor on the next session day, February 21, 1949, to formulate charges against the then Senate President Jose Avelino be reserved. His request was approved.

On February 21, 1949, hours before the opening of the session Senator Tañada and Senator Prospero Sanidad filed with the Secretary of the Senate a resolution enumpsi+ineffimcps against, the then Senate President and Although a sufficient number of senators to constitute a quorum were at the Senate session hall at the appointed time (10:00 A. M.), and the petitioner was already in his office, said petitioner delayed his appearance at the session hall until about 11:35 A. M. When he finally ascended the rostrum, he did not immediately open the session, but instead requested from the Secretary a copy of the resolution submitted by Senators Tañada and Sanidad and in the presence of the public he read slowly and carefully said resolution, after which he called and conferred with his colleagues Senators Francisco and Tirona.

Shortly before 12:00 noon, due to the insistent requests of Senators Sanidad and Cuenco that the session be opened, the petitioner finally called the meeting to order. Except Senator Sotto who was confined in a hospital and Senator Confesor who is in the United States, all the Senators were present.

Senator Sanidad, following a long established practice, moved that the roll call be dispensed with, but Senator Tirona opposed said motion, obviously in pursuance of a premeditated plan of

The next day the President of the Philippines recognized the respondent as acting president of the Philippine Senate.

By his petition in this quo warranto proceeding petitioner asks the Court to declare him the rightful President of the Philippine Senate and oust respondent.

The Court has examined all principal angles of the controversy and believes that these are the crucial points:

a. Does the Court have jurisdiction over the subjectmatter?

b. If it has, were resolutions Nos. 68 and 67 validly approved?

c. Should the petition be granted?

To the first question, the answer is in the negative, in view of the separation of powers, the political nature of the controversy (Alejandrino vs. Quezon, 46 Phil., 83; Vera vs. Avelino, 77 Phil., 192; Mabanag vs. Lopez Vito, 78 Phil., 1) and the constitutional grant to the Senate of the power to elect its own president, which power should not be interfered with, nor taken over, by the judiciary. We refused to take cognizance of the Vera case even if the rights of the electors of the suspended senators were allegedly affected without any immediate remedy. A fortiori we should abstain in this case because the selection of the presiding officer affects only the Senators themselves who are at liberty at any time to choose their officers, change or reinstate them. Anyway, if, as the petition must imply to be acceptable, the majorityrifthe Senators want petitioner to preside, his remedy lies in the Senate Session Hall—not in the Supreme Court.

The Court will not sally into the legitimate domain of the Senate on the plea that our refusal to intercede might lead into a crisis, even a revolution. No state of things has been proved that might change the temper of the Filipino people as a peaceful and law-abiding citizens. And we should not allow ourselves to be stampeded into a rash action inconsistent with the calm that should characterize judicial deliberations.

The precedent of Werts vs. Rogers does not apply, because among other reasons, the situation is not where two sets of senators have constituted themselves into two senates actually functioning as such, (as in the said Werts case), there being no question that there is presently one Philippine Senate only. To their credit be it recorded that petitioner and his partisans have not erected themselves into another Senate. The petitioner's claim is merely that respondent has not been duly elected in his place in the same one Philippine Senate.

It is furthermore believed that the recognition accorded by the Chief Executive to the respondent makes it adviseable, more than ever, to adopt the hands-off policy wisely enunciated by this repeatedly stood up to claim his right to deliver his one-hour privilege speech but the petitioner, then presiding, continuously ignored him; and when after the reading of the minutes, Senator Tañada insisted on being recognized by the Chair, the petitioner announced that he would order the arrest of any senator who would speak without being previously of his follower, Senator Tirona, who was continuously shouting at Senator Sanidad "Out of order!" everytime the latter would ask for recognition of Senator Tañada.

At this juncture, some disorderly conduct broke out in the Senate gallery, as if by pre-arrangement. At about this same time Senator Pablo Angeles David, one of the petitioner's followers, was recognized by petitioner, and he moved for adjournment of session, evidently, again, in pursuance of the above-mentioned conspiracy to muzzle Senator Tañada.

Senator Sanidad registered his opposition to the adjournment of the session and this opposition was seconded by herein respondent who moved that the motion of adjournment be submitted to a vote. Another commotion ensued.

Senator David reiterated his motion for adjournment and herein respondent also reiterated his opposition to the adjournment and again moved that the motion of Senator David be submitted to a vote.

Suddenly, the petitioner banged the gavel and abandoning the Chair hurriedly walked out of the session hall followed by Senators David, Tirona, Francisco, Torres, Magalona and Clarin, while the rest of the senators remained. Whereupon Senator Melecio Arranz, Senate President Pro-Tempore, urged by those senators present took the Chair and proceeded with the session.

Senator Cabili stood up, and asked that it be made of record—it was so made—that the deliberate abandonment of the Chair by the petitioner, made it incumbent upon Senate President Pro-Tempore Arranz and the remaining members of the Senate to continue the session in order not to paralyze the functions of the Senate. Senate President Pro-Tempore Arranz then suggested that respondent be designated to preside over the session, which suggestion was carried unanimously. The respondent thereupon took the Chair.

Upon motion of Senator Arranz, which was approved, Gregorio Abad was appointed Acting Secretary, because the Assistant Secretary, who was then acting as Secretary, had followed the petitioner when the latter abandoned the session.

Senator Tañada, after being recognized by the Chair, was then finally able to deliver his privilege speech. Thereafter Senator Sanidad read aloud the complete text of said Resolution (No. 68), and submitted his motion for approval thereof and the same was unanimously approved.

morning of February 21, 1949? (2) was there a quorum in that session? Mr. Justice Montemayor and Mr. Justice Reyes deem it useless, for the present to pass on these questions once it is held, as they do, that the Court has no jurisdiction over the case. What follows is the opinion of the other four on those sub-questions.

Supposing that the Court has jurisdiction, there is unanimity in the view that the session under Senator Arranz was a continuation of the morning session and that a minority of ten senators may not, by leaving the Hall, prevent the other twelve senators from passing a resolution that met with their unanimous endorsement. The answer might be different had the resolution been approved only by ten or less.

If the rump session was not a continuation of the morning session, was it validly constituted? In other words, was there the majority required by the Constitution for the transaction of the business of the Senate? Justices Paras, Feria, Pablo and Bengzon say there was, firstly because the minutes say so, secondly, because at the beginning of such session there were at least fourteen senators including Senators Pendatun and Lopez, and thirdly because in view of the absence from the country of Senator Tomas Confesor twelve senators constitute a majority of the Senate of twenty three senators" When the Constitution declares that a majority of "each House" shall constitute a quorum, "the House" does not mean "all" the members. Even a majority of all the members constitute "the House". (Missouri Pac. vs. Kansas, 63 Law ed. [U. S.], p. 239). There is a difference between a majority of "all the members of the House" and a majority of "the House", the latter requiring less number than the first. Therefore an absolute majority (12) of all the members of the Senate less one (23), constitutes constitutional majority of the Senate for the purpose of a quorum. Mr. Justice Pablo believes furthermore that even if the twelve did not constitute a quorum, they could have ordered the arrest of one, at least, of the absent members; if one had been so arrested, there would be no doubt Quorum then, and Senator Cuenco would have been elected just the same inasmuch as there would be eleven for Cuenco, one against and one abstained.

In fine, all the four justices agree that the Court being confronted with the practical situation that of the twentythree senators who may participate in the Senate deliberations in the days immediately after this decision, twelve senators will support Senator Cuenco and, at most, eleven will side with Senator Avelino, it would be most injudicious to declare the latter as the rightful President of the Senate, that office being essentially one that depends exclusively upon the will of the majority of the senators, the rule of the Senate about tenure of the President of that body being amendable at any time by that majority. And at any Session hereafter held with thirteen or more senators, in order to avoid all controversy arising from the divergence of opinion here about quorum and for the benefit of all concerned, the said twelve senators who approved the resolutions herein involved could ratify all their acts and thereby place them beyond the shadow of a doubt.

Applause from fellow senators greeted Senator Francis "Chiz" Escudero as he entered the Senate plenary hall on Wednesday to join the 11 minority senators, saying the ongoing impasse in the chamber had become "untenable and unacceptable" and was already affecting the Senate's performance of duties.

"The current impasse in the Senate is untenable and unacceptable," Escudero said in a statement.

"When political divisions become too extreme and obstruct our mandate, we must all have the courage to pause, gain perspective, reflect, consider and realize that we should put the Senate, as the institution that we serve, above ourselves," he added.

STATEMENT OF SEN. LOREN LEGARDA ON SENATE LEADERSHIP CHANGE: SENATE TAKEOVER UNCONSTITUTIONAL
Senate President Pro Tempore and four-term Senator Loren Legarda raised serious constitutional concerns, pointing out that no senator can validly act as Senate President on the strength of only twelve votes.
Under Article VI, Section 16(1) of the 1987 Constitution, "The Senate shall elect its President by a majority vote of all its respective Members." Since the Senate is composed of twenty-four Senators, that majority is thirteen. By the fact that the Senators present did not have thirteen votes, they could not validly elect a Senate President or authorize any Senator to act as Senate President.

Krizette Chu, tagahimod-pwet nina Digong at Jinggoy, ginawang legal opinion ang loyalty oath sa DDS
Kiffy Chu
1h ·
Wrong po.
Today's Senate coup is illegal unless the Supreme Court judges otherwise.
Why?
Quorum should still be 13
The Constitution says the Senate has 24 members.
Neither senator (Jinggoy or Bato) has lost his seat.
Detention, absence, or being a fugitive does not automatically create a vacancy.
Therefore, 24 members still exist and the majority remains 13.
Therefore the coup is not legal. Any issue should be brought before the Supreme Court, and not decided on by a Senator like Win Gatchalian Article VI, Section 16 does not just count Senate seats; it also talks about compelling absent senators to attend, kaya under Avelino v. Cuenco, may serious legal basis ang 12-of-22 quorum kapag si Jinggoy ay nasa court custody for a non-bailable plunder charge at si Bato ay reportedly nagtatago after an ICC warrant.
Kaya tigilan ang "coup" iyakan: hindi puwedeng gawing handbrake ng Senado ang isang nakakulong at isang nagtatago habang may flood control corruption na kailangang imbestigahan— balik trabaho na, hindi balik teleserye.

Ang cute ng DDS legal universe: noong kailangang isingit si Bato through remote voting, okay lang daw baluktutin ang rules. Pero ngayong nawawala sa bilang sina Bato at Jinggoy, biglang naging constitutional purists. Aba, himala. May selective reading comprehension na, may selective rule of law pa.

Yes, the Constitution says a majority of each House constitutes a quorum. Pero basahin naman nang buo, hindi yung parang horoscope lang na pipiliin ang convenient line. The same provision also says a smaller number may compel the attendance of absent members. Ibig sabihin, quorum is tied not only to a number on paper, but also to the Senate's real ability to function and compel attendance.

This is why Avelino v. Cuenco matters. The point is not that anyone can invent quorum whenever convenient. The point is that quorum cannot be detached from legal and practical reality: sino ba talaga ang within reach ng Senado? Sino ang kaya nitong ipatawag, ipahuli, at papuntahin? Vacancy answers one question; quorum answers another. Hindi kailangang bakante ang seat para maging legally relevant ang tanong: kaya ba talaga siyang papuntahin ng Senado?

Jinggoy is not merely "absent." He was arrested on a non-bailable plunder charge and is under court custody. The Senate cannot simply send the Sergeant-at-Arms to drag him to plenary like a truant student. Court custody has legal weight. Hindi siya puwedeng gawing pampabuo ng quorum kapag convenient sa political arithmetic, habang ini-ignore ang reality na hindi naman siya freely compellable by the Senate.

Bato is not merely "on leave" either. He is wanted by the ICC, has reportedly gone into hiding, and his whereabouts became a legal and institutional circus after his Senate appearance. If a senator is hiding from legal process, the Senate's coercive power over him is, at the very least, seriously impaired. Hindi ito normal absence. Hindi ito "traffic lang, late ak

Senator Alan Peter Cayetano is no longer the Senate President.

This was according to the newly formed 12-member majority bloc, after the Senate, with 12 senators present, voted to declare all leadership positions vacant during Wednesday's, June 3, plenary session.

Senator Sherwin Gatchalian has not yet been elected Senate President, as the position requires at least 13 votes from the Senate's members under the Constitution.

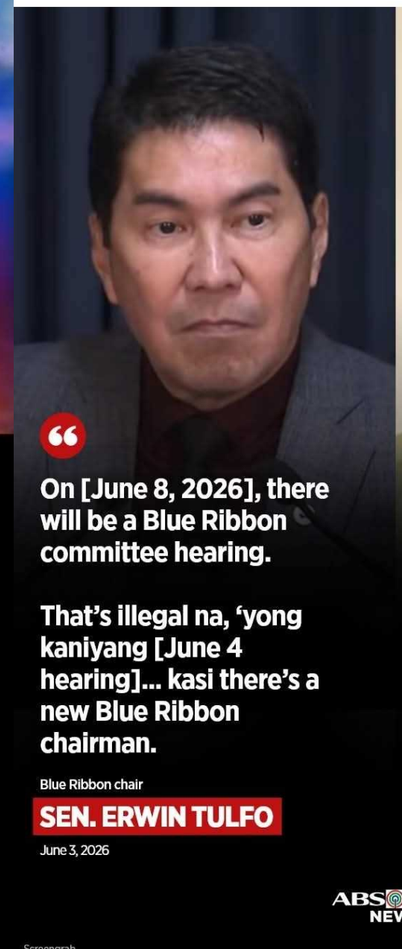
DALAWANG FLOOD CONTROL PROBE?

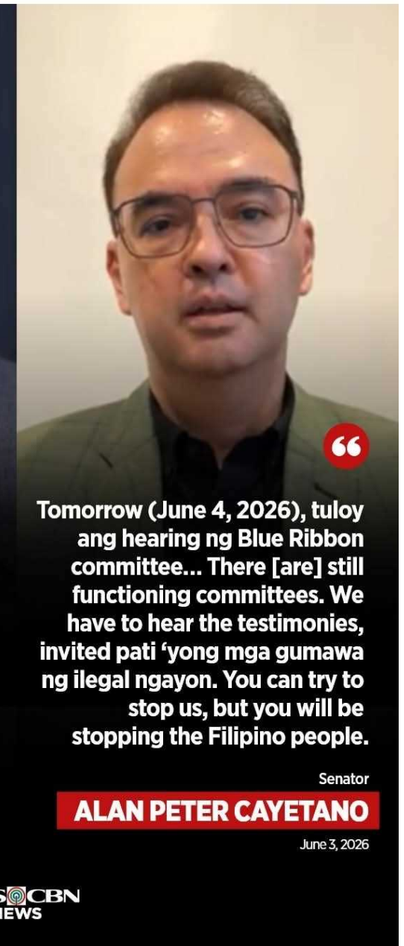
Iginiit ni Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano na tuloy pa rin ang nakatakdang Blue Ribbon hearing sa ilalim ng liderato ng kaniyang kapatid na si Senator Pia Cayetano sa Huwebes, Hunyo 4, 2026.

Tinuligsa naman ito ng bagong talagang Blue Ribbon chair na si Erwin Tulfo na nagtakda rin ng pagdinig sa Lunes, Hunyo 8, 2026.

Tingnan ang comments section para sa kaugnay na ulat.



On [June 8, 2026], there will be a Blue Ribbon committee hearing.
That's illegal na, 'yong kaniyang [June 4 hearing]... kasi there's a new Blue Ribbon chairman.
Blue Ribbon chair
SEN. ERWIN TULFO
June 3, 2026



Tomorrow (June 4, 2026), tuloy ang hearing ng Blue Ribbon committee... There [are] still functioning committees. We have to hear the testimonies, invited pati 'yong mga gumawa ng ilegal ngayon. You can try to stop us, but you will be stopping the Filipino people.

So yes, there is a serious and defensible legal argument that the working quorum can be based on 22 senators, making 12 enough to do business. Kung may gustong kumwestiyon, dalhin sa Supreme Court. Pero habang wala pang ruling na nagsasabing mali, hindi puwedeng gawing hostage ang buong Senado dahil may isang senador na nakakulong at may isa pang nagtatago.

At please, spare us the fake “binihag ang bayan” drama. Mas binihag ang bayan noong tinigil ang trabaho ng Senado dahil mas inuna ang proteksyon ng kaalyado kaysa batas, hearings, investigations, at public accountability. Mas binihag ang bayan kapag ang flood control corruption na may paper trail ay ayaw hayaang umusad, madinig, mabasa, at malantad sa publiko.

The Blue Ribbon Committee exists precisely to investigate malfeasance, misfeasance, nonfeasance, and matters of public interest. Flood control corruption is exactly the kind of issue that should be investigated, not buried under tantrums, quorum theatrics, and DDS legal cosplay.

Translation for the DDS: hindi porke natalo kayo sa bilang, coup na agad. Minsan, karma lang with jurisprudence.

Balik trabaho na ang Senado.

adjourn for more than three days without the consent of the other house. This is the basis of the minority and Chiz convening. Further, the quorum of 12 is based on the 1949 Avelino versus Cuenco ruling as well as the May 5, 2015 session where a quorum was based on 17 members of the Senate.

For sure the legality will be questioned but keep in mind that among the Majority, Chiz stands as their legal luminary. He knew what he was doing and it had legal legs that will survive scrutiny.

But the most important thing is, that Chiz Escudero had the wits to figure out that Alan Peter Cayetano’s continuing boycott of the Senate is self-serving and hurts the majority politically more than it benefits them.

Whether you call his move survival mode or a selfish political play, Chiz is smart enough to figure out the Majority is only serving the interests of Alan Peter Cayetano and he would not allow himself to be part it.

Is this the start of a potentially long redemption arc? Who knows? But it’s very apparent the timing is perfect and Chiz, wherher we like it or not, made a crucial senate-saving clutch shot today.

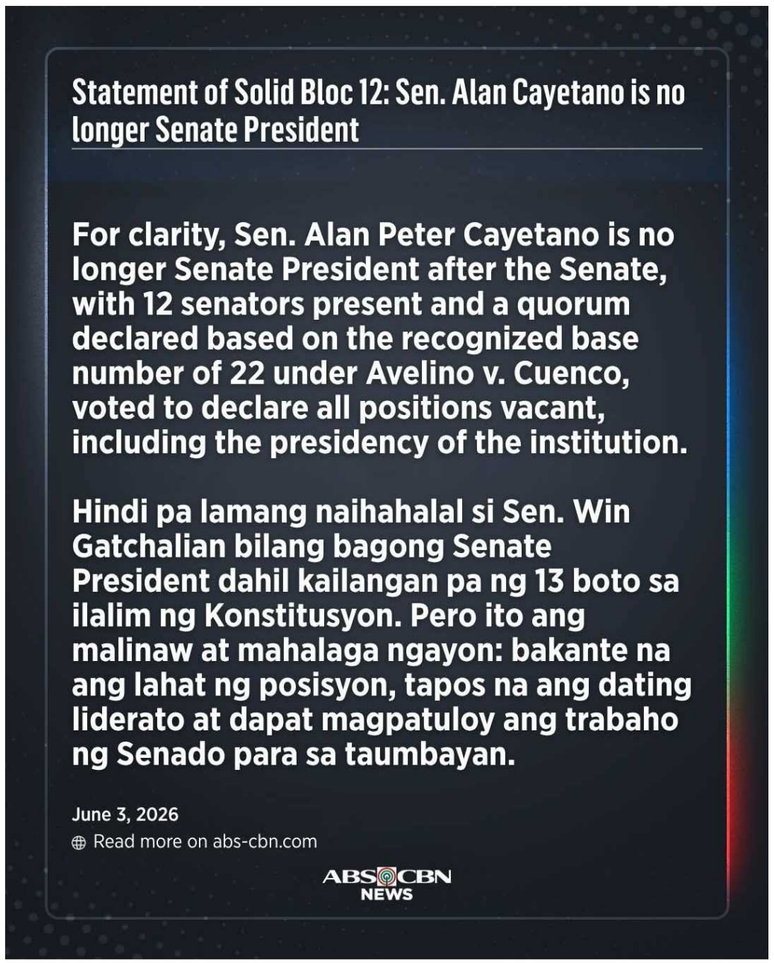
Nilinaw ng "Solid Bloc 12" na hindi na maituturing na Senate President si Senator Alan Peter Cayetano matapos magdeklara ng quorum sa plenary session ngayong Miyerkules, Hunyo 3, 2026, base na rin anila sa ruling ng Korte Suprema sa Avelino vs. Cuenco.

Anila, walang nahalal na Senate president dahil kulang ng kailangang boto sa ilalim ng Konstitusyon.

Tingnan ang comments section para sa kaugnay na ulat.



Statement of Solid Bloc 12: Sen. Alan Cayetano is no longer Senate President
For clarity, Sen. Alan Peter Cayetano is no longer Senate President after the Senate, with 12 senators present and a quorum declared based on the recognized base number of 22 under Avelino v. Cuenco, voted to declare all positions vacant, including the presidency of the institution.
Hindi pa lamang naihahalal si Sen. Win Gatchalian bilang bagong Senate President dahil kailangan pa ng 13 boto sa ilalim ng Konstitusyon. Pero ito ang malinaw at mahalaga ngayon: bakante na ang lahat ng posisyon, tapos na ang dating liderato at dapat magpatuloy ang trabaho ng Senado para sa taumbayan.

Today Senator Chiz Escudero did something a bit unexpected but not totally unthinkable. He actually showed up in the Senate, triggering not just a political earthquake, but an actual quorum on the floor.

The result? All Senate positions were declared vacant and Senator Win Gathalian assumed the position of acting Senate President.

The move has actually Constitutional basis and legal precedent. Constitutionally, Article 6 Section 16(5) provides that neither House, meaning Senate and Congress, shall adjourn for more than three days without the consent of the other house. This is the basis of the minority and Chiz convening. Further, the quorum of 12 is based on the 1949 Avelino versus Cuenco ruling as well as the May 5, 2015 session where a quorum was based on 17 members of the Senate.

For sure the legality will be questioned but keep in mind that among the Majority, Chiz stands as their legal luminary. He knew what he was doing and it had legal legs that will survive scrutiny.

Loren Legarda is lying through her teeth and gaslighting everyone.

The New Majority-12 did NOT elect a Senate President.

They declared all positions vacant with a quorum of 12 legally backed up by the Senate Rules, the Constitution, SC jurisprudence, and Senate practice.

Why should Legarda know this?

It's because in May 2015 when three (3) of their fellow Senators were arrested for plunder and she was abroad on an official trip, they used a quorum of 12 out of 17 available Senators to conduct business.

Guess who was one of the Senators in 2015?

Yep, Loren Legarda. Along with Alan Peter Cayetano and Pia Cayetano. Resibo below. 👇

And not one of them objected or claimed the session was unconstitutional. Not one of them filed a case before the Supreme Court.

You are now in estoppel, Senator Loren.

So no, we won't be gaslighted. 👊

The new Senate Majority has clarified that Alan Peter Cayetano is no longer the senate president. Malacañang has recognized the new Senate leadership. Same with the House.

Yet Alan Peter Cayetano insists he is still the senate president. The thing is, he's the only one saying so. Not his now minority allies, not anyone prominent from the DDS camp, not even his own sister, "Kumusta Ka Na" Pia.

The fact is, Alan Peter Cayetano is all alone in his own delusions. Even in the last two sessions his group decided not to show up in the plenary, he was the only one defending the group's actions.

Yes, Marcoleta appeared briefly earlier today, but he contributed zero to the task of making sense of the boycott. And while the group came out with a statement this morning, their statement practically made no sense as it wasn't as straightforward as the old minority's narrative that Cayetano's group is holding the entire institution hostage, which is true.

So now Alan Peter is all alone, fighting not just a lost cause but a no cause in the first place. That while his allies may have thought they'd get protection and privilege by supporting Alan Peter, it's become clear as day with the arrest of Jinggoy that they won't get any protection and that they're serving only the whims of Alan Peter.

Astute politicians with a modicum of dignity know when to retreat, call it a day, and just plan a comeback and fight another day. Not with Alan Peter.

Because he's delusional, drunk with power, and is practically a sad excuse for a Senator, if not a human being.

Give it up, Alan. Game's over. You know it, your former majority allies know it, the people know it. Your stint as senate president is unequivocally the worst in the history of our country.

PAHAYAG NI SENATOR MIGZ ZUBIRI

JUNE 03, 2026

Because to be able to declare sine die adjournment, you have to pass a Senate and House Concurrent Resolution which is done in the plenary floor and approved by the body.

As well as we need to formally announce that we will inform the President of the Republic of the Philippines that both the Senate and the House of Representatives are both adjourning sine die. Which we did earlier.

We even have to create a committee that will inform the President, which we did to elect Senators JV Ejercito, Raffy Tulfo, and Kiko Pangilinan. That is the tradition of the Senate, the rules of the Senate, and that is the process that should be done. Not a mere letter from the Senate President.

MALACAÑANG: SENATE LEADERSHIP CHANGE WAS LEGAL

The leadership change in the Senate — the second in less than a month — was legal, Malacañang said, hours after President Marcos lamented that Congress is "in disarray" and called on legislators to go back to work.

"What happened in the Senate this afternoon was in line with the law and rule of law," Palace press officer Undersecretary Claire Castro said at a press briefing minutes after the leadership revamp in the chamber.

"The Palace recognizes and respects the decision of the new majority and the leadership of acting Senate President Sherwin Gatchalian," she added.

On Tuesday, Malacañang expressed concern over the political drama in the Senate, saying it could hamper the passage of important bills and harm the economy.

Castro had said President Marcos is ready to work with lawmakers to push for the passage of priority measures.

"On the part of the President, on the part of the executive, there will be no issue. Whoever is the leader of Congress, the executive will coordinate, cooperate to pass the priority bills for the people," the Palace press officer said.

"The President will not think of himself. He will not think of his own interests."

In an interview with reporters in Tokyo late last month, Marcos denied that the election of Senate leaders requires Malacañang's blessing.

"Malacañang doesn't give a rubber stamp to the Senate president. The Senate president is decided by the senators themselves. I mean, of course, we are aware of the goings-on in the Senate because it's important to us to be well-informed," Marcos said.

Jun 03, 2026 21:06:46

"I think you ask any senator. Me, as a former senator, I will laugh in your face because that's simply not true. You instruct a senator about who he should vote for? Such discussions seem to be out of this world." | via Alexis Romero

"A MAJORITY OF 24 IS 13. WITHOUT 13 SENATORS PRESENT, THE SENATE CANNOT VALIDLY TRANSACT BUSINESS"

Nagakabalaka si Senator Loren Legarda sa nagluntad ngaorganization sa sulod sang senado subong nga Hunyo 3, 2026.

Ini may kaangtanan man sa pagbaylo sa iya ni Senator Sherwin Gatchalian bilang Senate President Pro Tempore nga nagaserbe man subong nga Acting Senate President.

Suno sa senador, kun pagabasehan lang ang konstitusyon kag senate rules, possible lamang ang pag-eleher sang bag-o nga liderato kun may ara sang 13 ukon sobra pa nga magaboto nga senador.

SO, KAILAN TALAGA ANG HEARING?

Tuloy pa rin daw ang hearing ng Blue Ribbon Committee bukas, June 4, 2026, ayon kay Sen. Alan Peter Cayetano.

Ito ay taliwas sa naunang pahayag ni Sen. Erwin Tulfo na ipagpapaliban ang hearing ng komite sa Lunes, June 8, 2026, para mas makapaghanda ang lahat ng miyembro ng Senado, mapa-minorya o mayorya, na kaniyang inaanyayahang lumahok sa pagdinig.

Naitalaga bilang chairman ng Blue Ribbon Committee si Sen. Tulfo kanina matapos makabuo ng quorum ang Solid Bloc 12 at maideklarang bakante ang lahat ng puwesto.

Bisitahin ang www.gmanetwork.com/news para sa pinakabagong balita.

There will be a Blue Ribbon Committee hearing on Monday (June 8, 2026). We are just moving the schedule date from tomorrow to prepare all members.
As a matter of fact, I declare and I manifested that all members of the Senate-be it the majority and the new minority now- they are all members of the Committee, para walang masabi na ika nga may hokus-pokus.

SEN. LEGARDA, SINABING LABAG SA KONSTITUSYON ANG GINAWANG SESYON NG 12 NA SENADOR

Ibinahagi ni Senador Loren Legarda ang kanyang pagtutol sa ginanap na sesyon ng 12 na Senador na binubuo ng mga miyembro ng minority kasama si Sen. Chiz Escudero.

Matatandaan na idineklara ng 12 na Senador na sapat ang numero nila para mag-umpisa ang sesyon kung saan ay inihalal si Senador Win Gatchalian bilang Senate President Pro Tempore na kapalit ni Legarda.

Ngunit ayon kay Legarda, hindi maituturing na quorum ang pagdalo ng 12 na Senador dahil hindi naman ito numero ng majority.

The Senate is composed of twenty-four members. A majority of twenty-four is thirteen," ani Legarda.

"Without thirteen senators present, the Senate cannot validly transact business," dagdag pa niya.

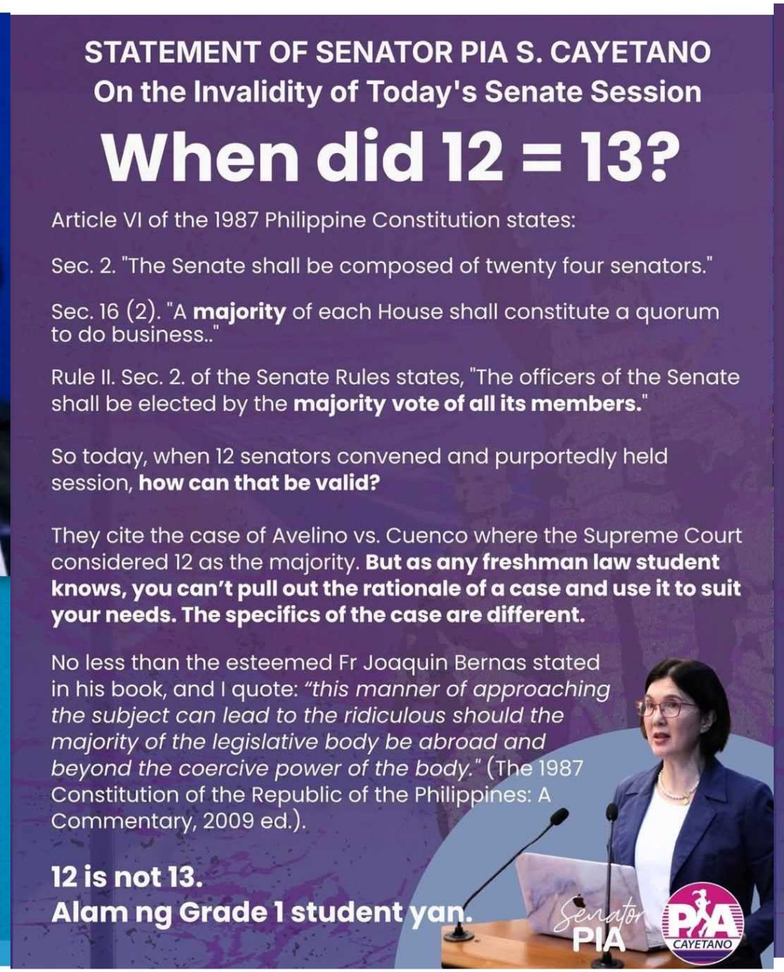
'WHEN DID 12 = 13?'... more



STATEMENT OF SENATOR PIA S. CAYETANO
On the Invalidity of Today's Senate Session
When did 12 = 13?
Article VI of the 1987 Philippine Constitution states:
Sec. 2. "The Senate shall be composed of twenty four senators."
Sec. 16 (2). "A majority of each House shall constitute a quorum to do business.."
Rule II. Sec. 2. of the Senate Rules states, "The officers of the Senate shall be elected by the majority vote of all its members."
So today, when 12 senators convened and purportedly held session, how can that be valid?
They cite the case of Avelino vs. Cuenco where the Supreme Court considered 12 as the majority. But as any freshman law student knows, you can't pull out the rationale of a case and use it to suit your needs. The specifics of the case are different.
No less than the esteemed Fr Joaquin Bernas stated in his book, and I quote: "this manner of approaching the subject can lead to the ridiculous should the majority of the legislative body be abroad and beyond the coercive power of the body." (The 1987 Constitution of the Republic of the Philippines: A Commentary, 2009 ed.).
12 is not 13.

⚠️ Whatever Alan Pinocchio Cayetano and DDS bloggers say, talo sila sa Supreme Court who said in Avelino vs. Cuenco (1949) that 12 out of 23 Senators is legal quorum. The burden is on APC to file a case before the SC where he will most likely lose. 😂

'RES IPSA LOQUITUR'

Umaasa si Sen. Alan Peter Cayetano na hindi raw tungkol sa impeachment trial o pagbabago ng Konstitusyon ang nangyaring pagpapalit ng liderato sa Senado kanina, June 3, 2026, matapos makabuo ng quorum ang mga senador nang dumalo si Sen. Chiz Escudero.

Ngunit nakapagtataka raw ang nangyaring pagpapalit ng Senate leadership dahil bigla raw kinilala at sinuportahan ng Kamara at ng Malacañang ang pagkakatalaga kay Sen. Win Gatchalian bilang acting Senate President.

I really hope that this is not about the impeachment [or] about changing the Constitution.
Nakakapagtaka ‘yung pagka-execute. Biglang sasabihin na ng House of Representatives na kinikilala si Sen. Win, sinasabi na ng Malacañang.
Guys, res ipsa loquitur.

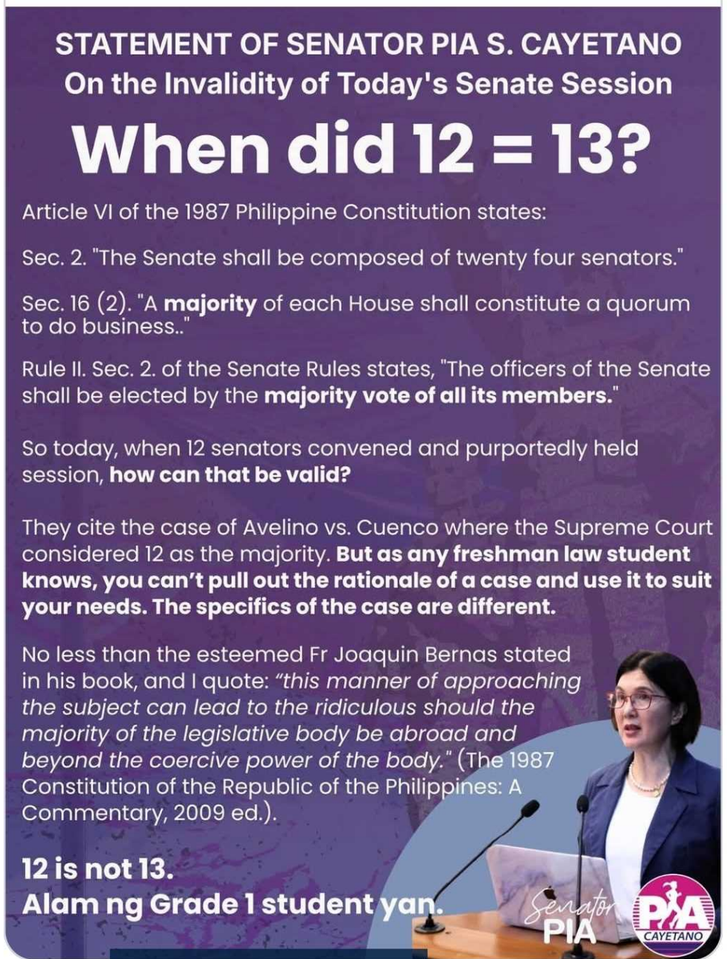
When did 12 = 13?... more



STATEMENT OF SENATOR PIA S. CAYETANO
On the Invalidity of Today's Senate Session
When did 12 = 13?
Article VI of the 1987 Philippine Constitution states:
Sec. 2. "The Senate shall be composed of twenty four senators."
Sec. 16 (2). "A majority of each House shall constitute a quorum to do business.."
Rule II. Sec. 2. of the Senate Rules states, "The officers of the Senate shall be elected by the majority vote of all its members."
So today, when 12 senators convened and purportedly held session, how can that be valid?
They cite the case of Avelino vs. Cuenco where the Supreme Court considered 12 as the majority. But as any freshman law student knows, you can't pull out the rationale of a case and use it to suit your needs. The specifics of the case are different.
No less than the esteemed Fr Joaquin Bernas stated in his book, and I quote: "this manner of approaching the subject can lead to the ridiculous should the majority of the legislative body be abroad and beyond the coercive power of the body." (The 1987 Constitution of the Republic of the Philippines: A Commentary, 2009 ed.).

Erwin Tulfo says Marcoleta can try to hold a hearing tomorrow but the new Secretary and Sergeant-at-Arms have been instructed already that tomorrow's hearing is cancelled and moved to Monday.

My prediction:

Pag sinubukan ituloy ni Marcoleta ang hearing bukas, baka sila naman ang patayan ng kuryente at aircon! 👊

⚠️ Ang pinaka unang babaliktad after Chiz Escudero ay may oras pa, either si Joel Villanueva or the Villars. We can rule out Loren dahil tumaya na sya with APC with her recent statement. After mabuo ni Win ang 13, wala na sila kukunin. Grab the chance! 😂

FOR : ALL SENATE OFFICES

SUBJECT : WORK-FROM-HOME ARRANGEMENT ON JUNE 4, 2026

DATE : June 3, 2026

The Committee chairmanships and memberships having been declared vacant, and to give way to the organization of committees under the new chairpersons, no official business has been scheduled tomorrow, June 4, 2026.

In light of these developments and to preserve the neutrality of the Senate bureaucracy, all Senate Secretariat and Senate Proper offices are hereby authorized to Work-from-Home (WFH) on the said date.

The events of these past weeks have affected not only the ability of the Senate to fulfill its mandate but more so, the morale of its employees who have quietly been holding the line, doing their sworn duty despite the untenable political climate which they had nothing to do with.

No officer or employee shall be deemed insubordinate, absent without leave, or otherwise administratively responsible for opting to avail of the arrangement.

We wish to assure all employees that they will not be made to bear the burden or suffer adverse consequences of circumstances that are not of their making. The Senate leadership remains committed to protecting their welfare, preserving their professional integrity, and ensuring that no employee acting in good faith shall be subjected to intimidation, retaliation, or unwarranted administrative action.

Please be guided accordingly.
